Road Relays Rules

Rule 226 Entries

1. In road relays clubs shall not be allowed to enter more than 3 times the number of runners entitled to compete per team.
2. A club entering more than one team in a road relay shall be allowed to select the teams from the complete club entry for the event.
3. Every club/team declaration for a road relay shall be signed by an authorised member of the club on whose behalf the entry is being made. The club shall be held responsible for the accuracy of the information given, and for the eligibility of the runners.
4. A runner whose name does not appear on the club's entry shall not be allowed to compete in a road relay.

Rule 227 Race Numbers

Every runner must wear the supplied number or numbers, which must serve to identify the team and should also identify the stage that the runner is running.

Rule 228 Team Declarations

1. All teams must be declared before the start of a road relay and the stage order of the runners specified in the manner laid down by the Promoter.
2. No changes may be made to the declared stage order of runners in a road relay without prior approval of the Race Referee and the Promoter.

Rule 229 Runners

Where a team includes a runner who has already run a stage of the race that team shall not, subject to entry conditions of the race, be included in the results.
